PARENT WORKSHOPS

I ASKED FOR A BIKE, NOT A BABY: A CHILD'S VIEW OF A NEW FAMILY MEMBER

Regression, strong feelings, and sibling preparation activities are just a few things that will be covered in this class. Parents will leave with a new outlook on what to expect and how to work with their child to make bringing home baby as positive a experience as possible

TEACHING THE ART OF POTTYING (AKA POTTY TRAINING 101)

Discover a new perspective on pottyng. We will look at the task pottyng not as something to be trained for, ACK that sounds rough & tough, but as learning the art of something new. There are lots of facets to this whole Potty Training thing & we will cover them ALL. How to know when your child is ready, how to start, how to deal with your frustrations & your kids fears and much more. Take a deep breath, & remember none of us went to high school in diapers, IT WILL HAPPEN, THEY WILL POTTY!

TURN "NO" INTO "YES"

WITHOUT YELLING

Participants will explore new ways of bringing calm and cooperation to the relationship with their children. Participants will leave with a new perspective on how to ask their children to participate in the daily lives, activities and chores of the family without either party raising their voice.

DISCIPLINE MADE EASY

Discover ways to get rid of unwanted behaviors and replace them with wanted ones, all while keeping your cool. Learn the strategies to make discipline productive and positive, and keep your blood pressure down.

KEYS TO POSITIVE PARENTING

Join our class and gain skills to create a home where children respond positively to requests and rules, and where parents can use calm voices instead of yelling, bringing harmony and teamwork to the family.

MOVE YOUR MORNING

Who wants to get up? We want and need sleep. That being said, no one likes fighting with their kids. When kids are rushed they get frustrated, angry, defiant. The more you rush and push, the slower they seem to go. So how to you get everyone where they need to get to and on time? Come join us to discover strategies to get your kids up, dressed, fed, and out of the door, fight free.

TAME THOSE TANTRUMS

Tantrums are an explosion of feelings. Kids have the same feelings as we do, but they have yet to learn how to productively express them. Join us to discover ways to help teach your kids how to express their emotions in a calmer and more productive way and see tantrums disappear.

PARENTING RESOLUTIONS THAT YOU CAN MAKE ANY TIME OF THE YEAR

We make resolutions to lose weight, work harder, save money, clean more and on and on and on. This year make resolutions that will change your family and your life! No need to reserve January 1st as the only day for resolutions. Make them anytime and start anew. Discover the 6 resolutions that will change your home.
